

It's that time of the year again!

By Andie McHardy-Blaser

CPCO's Conference & Annual General Meeting (AGM) is right around the corner, and we want to give a sneak preview of what to expect during this three-day event.

"Sparkling the Divine Light" is the theme this year. The conference is the only one of its kind in Canada, focusing on Catholic education leadership for Principals and Vice-Principals. The conference will be held on April 21 and 22, with the gala dinner and awards taking place on the second day. Our AGM will follow on April 23 and the entire event will be held at the Westin Harbour Castle in Toronto.

We are pleased to share that His Eminence Thomas Cardinal Collins will join us as the main celebrant of the opening Mass. Andy Hargreaves and Father Thomas J. Reese are the keynote speakers this year.

To learn more about our conference happenings, please refer to the conference handbook, which will be sent out to all CPCO Associates next week. In the handbook you will find detailed information about the event and registration. In the meantime, you can refer to our website regarding the conference & AGM.

Join the conversation on Twitter! We will be using the hashtag #CPCO2016 to chat with event attendees throughout the conference and we want to hear from you. Please follow us on Twitter @CPCOTweet for conference updates and other news.

This year's conference will be another one to remember and we look forward to seeing you there!
